

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) for TAE40116 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment

Complete this kit & email back to RPL@plenty.edu.au

This RPL kit is used as the first step in assessing candidates against the requirements of the TAE40116 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment.

What's RPL?

RPL stands for 'Recognition of Prior Learning' and is an assessment only process that lets people with substantial existing skills and knowledge demonstrate their competence without having to first be trained. There are many advantages in undertaking the RPL process with Plenty RPL:

- Competitive edge! Gain a powerful, competitive edge over other managers with this very popular qualification.
- Speed! We support busy professionals by structuring most of the RPL assessment around a face-to-face meeting, videoconference or telephone call.
- Quality! Utilise well-designed and high-quality RPL processes with Plenty Training, which enjoys consistently high average quarterly feedback scores of over 4 out of 5 from around 3,000 students per year.

How much?

There is no charge to complete this application, submit it to us and have an assessor recommend whether or not you are a suitable candidate for RPL. Upon enrolment the applicable RPL fee will apply.

We offer a 100% refund if we don't get you 'over the line' – provided you answer all of our questions truthfully!

The qualification

This qualification is required by individuals delivering training and assessment services within the Vocational Education and Training (VET)* sector – including within Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) – as required under the national Standards of Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015.

*Vocational Education and Training (VET) provides training in job related and technical skills and covers a large range of job roles and industries such as the trades, office work, retail, hospitality and technology. Qualifications range from Certificate I to Graduate Diplomas.

What now?

1 Select your units	You only need ten minutes to rate your experience and background against the units of competence on the following pages.
2 Email us this kit and your resume	Send us this completed kit and your resume. We will review your selected units and your background and let you know whether we think you are suitable for RPL.
3 Enrol	If we believe that you are suitable for RPL we will invite you to enrol. You can enrol via telephone.
4 RPL meeting	We will send you a list of the topics ahead of a 1-2 hour RPL interview via meeting or telephone at a mutually-convenient time.
5 Follow-up evidence	We will then send you a list of any follow-up evidence items we discussed during the meeting (such as documents you've produced). All evidence must be current. This generally means it needs to be from within the past two - three years.

Terms and conditions apply. See our website for details.
